Responsibilities:

- Supervise and engage with children in daily activities, including play, learning, and meals
- Organize weekly daily planning of age-appropriate activities such as art, science, motor
- Ensure a safe and clean environment by following daycare policies and procedures
- Support children with basic needs such as feeding, diapering, and dressing for outdoors (if required)
- Communicate with parents and guardians in a friendly and professional manner
- Assist with light cleaning and tidying of play areas
- Follow guidelines set out by daycare, Eastern Ontario Health Unit, and Ministry of Education

Qualifications:

- Must be at least 18 years of age
- Ability to lift to 23kg (50lbs)
- Previous experience in childcare required
- Ability to work both independently and as a team member
- Must be comfortable working with children and interacting with parents
- CPR Level C & First Aid (current validity or scheduled to be renewed)

- Vulnerable Sector Check (completed within the last 6 months)
- Immunizations up to date (MMR, Tdap [td booster vaccine], Varicella, Hepatitis B, TB skin test)
- A patient, positive, and curious attitude
- Ability to work flexible hours, including on short notice, Monday-Friday
- Familiar with “How Does Learning Happen”

Why Join Us?

- Flexible work schedule in a casual role
- Family-first philosophy
- Opportunity to gain experience in childcare
- Rewarding work making a difference in children’s lives

If you love working with kids and are looking for a flexible part-time opportunity, we’d love to hear from you!
